

Imagine that 2-1-1 Brevard earned a penny every time you searched the Internet or shopped online? Well, now we can!

GoodSearch donates half its revenue, about a penny per search - to your favorite charity or school with every search and every online purchase at one of their partner merchants (including The Gap, Target and Barnes and Nobel!). It doesn't cost you a thing — the money comes from the advertisers and the stores. GoodSearch.com is powered by Yahoo!, so you get great results. You can use GoodSearch.com as your home page or just as your primary search engine.

Remember, it won't cost you anything – the money comes from the advertisers and the stores. The more people who use this site and designate 2-1-1 Brevard, the more money we will receive – so please spread the word to your friends and family! Just go to www.goodsearch.com and be sure to enter [my charity] as the charity you want to support. And, be sure to spread the word!

If you want to learn more, you can also read about GoodSearch in the NY Times, Oprah Magazine, CNN, the Wall Street Journal. To support 2-1-1 Brevard every time you do an online search or purchase, just click on the GoodSearch link below.
